The Weekly Article from

FATHER SHANE CAMPBELL

Today is Stewardship Sunday. I would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who give their time, talent, and treasure to the Church of St. Joseph. We have a wonderful community and parish here and without each one of you giving of yourselves, things would be very different. Thank you to all of our new volunteers and ministers who have stepped up and started helping here at the Church of St. Joseph through the census. We have had a great response from people who want to help in different areas of ministry. I encourage anyone who would like to give some time or talent to the parish to contact the parish office and see what kind of opportunities are available. We love our volunteers! I am humbled to be the pastor of such a wonderful parish. Thank you again for all that you do for the Church of St. Joseph.

Last Sunday, we had our Remembrance Mass here at the Church of St. Joseph. I would like to thank Tammy Bullinger for all the time she spent helping prepare the Mass and the time she spends with the sick and the grieving. I would also like to thank Missy Mosbrucker for her work in doing the video and Lacey Roberts for preparing the choir, it was beautiful music as always. I would also like to thank Deacon Randy & Deacon Bob for all of the vigils that are presided at for our deceased parish members. Thank you to the volunteers who helped set everything up for the Mass. Thank you to Art and Environment for their work in setting up the area for the candles. Lastly, thank you to everyone who attended the Mass. It was a wonderful way to celebrate those who have gone before us in this past year.

Have a wonderful and blessed week!
Fr. Campbell

Marriage Encounter Upcoming Retreat

Married couples – Consider doing something great for yourselves and your marriage. A series of presentations are given by a team of Catholic couples and a priest. The focus of the weekend is the couple, not group sessions. The presentations allow each couple a rare opportunity to look at themselves as individuals, then look at their marriage and relationship to each other, and finally to look at their relationship to God, the church, and the world. After each presentation, the husband and wife have time in the privacy of their room for their own personal discussion.

Upcoming Marriage Encounter Dates

Longest Married Couple Project Seeks Nominations

The annual search for the Longest Married Couple (LMC) in the United States and Canada is underway and runs through Jan. 10, 2016 with national winners named in both countries in February 2016. There also will be 50 state winners in the United States and provincial winners in Canada. The national winners will be recognized during Valentine's Week 2016, which coincides with World Marriage Day, which is the second Sunday of February. Nominations, which are open to all husband and wife couples regardless of religious affiliation, may be submitted. Contact information requires the name of the couple, their wedding date and where they currently reside—plus a contact phone or email address of the individual nominating the couple. Submission can be sent via email at wwmelmc2015@gmail.com, or mail Dick & Diane Baumbach, 8924 Puerto Del Rio Drive Suite 402, Cape Canaveral, FL 32920, or phone 321-613-5180. Nominations must be received by Jan. 10, 2016.
