The Weekly Article from
FATHER SHANE CAMPBELL

The theme for Catholic Schools Week 2016 (January 31-February 6) is "Catholic School: Communities of Faith, Knowledge and Service"

Since 1913, Saint Joseph School has been doing just that. It has raised the standards in its tradition of excellence in academics, in the development of faith and in giving of one's time and effort to help others.

One way we are doing that this year is by expanding our Preschool program. Due to overwhelming response the first week of Preschool registration, we have decided to offer a Junior Kindergarten class, Monday through Friday, half days (am or pm) for the 2016-2017 school year. This class will be offered to 5 year olds. We are extremely excited for this new adventure. If you would like more information about the Preschool program, please contact Heather Swanson, our Daycare/Preschool Director, at 701-663-0032

By raising the standards in FAITH, KNOWLEDGE, and SERVICE our Catholic Schools stand out from other educational institutions. For over 100 years, our school has seen thousands of students walk through the halls, study in the classrooms, play on the playgrounds, worship in the church, and receive their Sacraments...many were/are lifelong parishioners.

I want to thank everyone who supports our school and I encourage those who may not be aware of the tradition and history of our school to take note and recognize that we are a unique and privileged parish in having the presence of such an active school. There are many things wrong in our modern world culture; our school is not one of them. We are currently registering students for the 2016-2017 school year in grades K-5. If you have any questions about Saint Joseph School or would like to take a tour, please contact myself or Valerie Vogel, our school principal. We would love to show you what Saint Joseph School is all about!

God Bless
Fr. Campbell
